THE BEAUTY OF ST. JOHN

NO PASSPORT
FOR U.S. CITIZENS
REQUIRED

Just a quick 20-minute ferry ride from St. Thomas, St. John is a pristine Caribbean gem. In 1956, Laurance Rockefeller bought and donated two-thirds of the island to the National Park Service. Today, there's no end to the ways your group can discover their unscripted side – each more beautiful than the next. Cruz Bay is the center of activity on St. John. Here, you can hold events in colorful, lively cafés and fabulous restaurants. Your group can make use of 9,500 acres of lush, green, hilly land. There are trail excursions where hikers can discover natural habitats, plantation ruins and well-preserved petroglyphs. St. John is also home to one of the world's top-ranked beaches, Trunk Bay, with its exciting underwater nature trail.
